A Troubled Home:

True story- A mother brought her 10-year-old son to camp and asked to speak with the camp dean. She asked if he would keep an eye on her son because there were difficulties at home. The dean pressed for more details and learned that she and her husband were getting a divorce.

"My husband is moving out this week," she said.

"Moving out this week? Does your son know?" he asked.

"Yes, he knows. He didn't want to come to camp, but we thought this would be the best way to handle it."

Can you imagine? The last time the son saw the father was in the midst of his own packing to leave and he knew that when he got home, his father would not be there. He didn't know when he would see him again, but he knew that his family life would never again be the same.

How do you think his home life will affect his week at camp?

How do you think he will respond to female group leaders? Male group leaders?

What can you do to help?

15. Assignment - One page (500 words), typewritten answering the following 3 questions:
