Bob Russell

God has blessed Bob Russell with a life much different than one he could have ever imagined. As a young man growing up in northern Pennsylvania, Bob had intended on becoming a high school basketball coach in his hometown. During his senior year of high school, however, Bob realized a desire in his heart to enter the ministry. Soon thereafter, he enrolled in Cincinnati Bible Seminary where he graduated in 1965.

At age 22, Bob became the pastor of Southeast Christian Church. Before retiring in 2006, that church grew from 120 members to 18,000 people attending the four worship services every weekend. An accomplished author, Bob has written over one dozen books. He also has a weekly column in The Lookout, a magazine printed by Standard Publishing.
